About

Kam Kam Dunes

We are a nomadic camp equipped with eleven tents and one suite royal -traditional nomadic Berber tents- built with organic dromedary leather and handmade by local artisans.

Each tent (24m<sup>2</sup>) has a private bathroom with hot water shower and possibility to accommodate two or three adults.

Kam Kam Dunes are not only exclusive tents. The camp has a dining tent and a chill-out area with views over Erg Chebbi Desert.

Enjoy a cosy, stylish and warm atmosphere surrounded by an authentic experience, and loyal to the traditions of the Sahara Berber region.

Kam Kam Dunes

The new Kam Kam Suites Concept

Kam Kam Suites opened in October 2018.

It's a new nomadic camp equipped with four tents built with organic dromedary leather and handmade by local artisans.

It's a camp five minutes walking from Kam Kam Dunes.

Kam Kam Suites is between two very big dunes, so the traveller will have the feeling of being lost inside the desert.

There are less tents to give more intimacy and privacy to the traveller.

Tents are twice bigger than original Kam Kam Dunes. Kam Kam Suites tents are 50m<sup>2</sup> and can accommodate from one to four adults.

How to arrive in Kam Kam Dunes

1. SELF DRIVING

Travelling in a regular car:

Your meeting point will be at the only petrol station in Merzouga "Afriquia" where our guide will be waiting for you.

Afterwards he will escort you to a car park where you can safely leave your car. From there a 4x4 car transfer is provided to travel to Kam Kam Dunes.

On the following day a transfer will be provided to drive you back to the car park to collect your car (free of charge).

*Remember to call us two hours in advanced to inform about the arrival time.

Travelling in a 4x4 or SUV car:

This is the most adventurous and exciting way to arrive.

Your meeting point will be at the only petrol station in Merzouga "Afriquia" where our guide will be waiting for you.

Our guide will then get in your car with you and give you some basic lessons on how to drive your car across the desert. After that he will direct you towards Kam Kam Dunes.

Usually your car's tyre pressure will need to be decreased to ensure greater ease of driving.

Please ensure that you know how to activate the 4x4 mode of your car.

*Remember to call us two hours in advanced to inform about the arrival time.

Travelling with a hired driver:

Please ask your driver to contact us in advance.

MEETING POINT

Google Maps:

goo.gl/maps/rS4uL4UybG32

IMPORTANT: Please on the arrival day call us in the morning when you leave from your hotel, so we can be in touch all the time! Kindly call us again two hours before you arrive in Merzouga. (Usually two hours before is when you are approaching the city, "ERFOUD"). The meeting point will be in the AFRIQUIA petrol station in Merzouga. Once there we will organise the transfer into the desert.

Remember that we don't serve lunch in Kam Kam Dunes, therefore the check-in time is always after lunch at 3pm.

Note: Travellers might be teamed up with other groups during transfer, plus you may have to wait to be transferred in a specific time within a time frame. We ask you to be patient.

2. PUBLIC TRANSPORT

It is the sort of service local people would use to get to Merzouga, it does not stop to visit any sight.

- Daily departures from Marrakech start at 8:30am and arrive in Merzouga at 21:00pm.

- From Fez the night bus will leave at 20:30pm and arrives at 7:15am in Merzouga. If you want to take this bus and do an early check-in you will need to pay 60€ per person (minimum 2 persons), and it will include a tour across the dunes and lunch in a restaurant.

Alternately you can stop in Rissani and visit the city and have lunch there. Then take our Rissani transfer service to the camp (50€ per car).

You can find more details regarding the public bus on the website for Supra Tours www.supratours.ma

3. ERRACHIDIA AIRPORT

The nearest airport is at Errachidia (ERH) Airport. There are regular flights in the Royal Air Maroc Airlines coming from Casablanca.

Recently there is a new flight from Fez with Air Arabia Airlines.

Transfer from ERH airport to Kam Kam Dunes (40 minutes) can be provided at 100€ per car both ways.

If budget is not an issue, and you want to get to Kam Kam Dunes with style, then a helicopter or private plane is your best choice. We don't offer them directly but you can hire them at:

www.helicoptere.heliconia-maroc.com
www.alfaaair.com

We can organise a transfer from these destinations:

ERRACHIDIA

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN SHARED AND PRIVATE TOUR

- We recommend taking a 3 night 4 day tour if you want to enjoy more time in the desert.

- If you only do one night in Kam Kam Dunes usually ATV cannot be done since the station is closed when the bus leaves.

- The arrival in the desert is usually late so the camel ride will be done at sunrise

**We only organise the desert tour, client must book hotels and flights to Morocco.*

Taking a shared tour from Marrakech to Kam Kam Dunes allows travel agents around the city to combine groups and individuals (12-15 persons) in order to share costs and this undoubtedly makes it the most affordable way to reach Kam Kam Dunes.

The bus itself is safe and slightly more comfortable than the regular public bus, but you will be mixed with other budget tours.

Unfortunately, you need to collect other travellers from various points around the city.

Having stopped in a number of shops and souvenir stalls en-route, and visiting some interests sights like Ait Ben Haddou you should reach Kam Kam Dunes in the early evening and if you are staying for one night, the bus will return to Marrakech the next morning (Marrakech drop off is in Jemaa el- Fnaa place).

Taking a shared tour to Kam Kam Dunes

Conclusion:

Shared tours are a wonderful way to keep your budget in check but they do require patience so while you do receive a good deal in terms of price, these reduced costs are at the expense of accommodating the rest of the group in your schedule, less flexibility and maybe arriving later in the destination.

It is great for students that don't mind to share the transport with other tourists but want to sleep at the best places like Kam Kam Dunes. Unfortunately, this can also mean the shared option is not the most suitable for a one night stay as this late arrival results in a very limited amount of time in Kam Kam Dunes.

If you go for the shared transport it is better to book for two nights at Kam Kam Dunes so that you can enjoy a full day at the desert.

Tick the following boxes to see if you are ready to book a shared tour:

*We strongly recommend two nights in Kam Kam Dunes on shared tours.

- Pick up time may vary from 7:15am to 8:15am depending on that day traffic and occupancy.
- The driver is not a guide. He will be not necessarily explaining the sights nor speak your language.
- There can be from 10-15 people in the minibus.
- You will be brought together with clients from other travel agencies who might have paid less since they are spending their nights in hostels and less quality hotels.
- Groups can be all ages, backgrounds, religions and they will not be sleeping in the same place like you.
- There will be many stops to souvenir shops and sights along the route and schedule will have to be respected by the whole group.
- Be ready to give small tips in Ait Ben Haddou and camel ride.

FAQs

PLACES

What is Dades and Aït Ben Haddou?

Aït Benhaddou is a fortified village (ksar in Arabic), along the former caravan route between the Sahara and Marrakech in present-day Morocco.

Most citizens are attracted by the tourist trade live in more modern dwellings in a village on the other side of the river, although there are four families still living in the ancient village.

Inside the walls of the ksar are half a dozen (Kasbahs) of merchants houses and other individual dwellings. It is a great example of Moroccan earthen clay architecture.

Aït Benhaddou has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1987 and several films have been shot there, including Gladiator, Game of Thrones, The mummy etc.

Boumalne Dades is a village in Tinghir Province, Drâa-Tafilalet, Morocco. Located at the outlet of the upper Dadès Valley (more than 1500 m high), Boumalne Dades is between the Roses Valley and Toudra gorges. It is found between Marrakech and Kam Kam Dunes and it's a very good option to stop and rest from the long road trip from Marrakech to Merzouga, that's why some of our itineraries stop at Dades.

WEATHER

In winter (Nov-December-Jan-Feb)

During the night, the desert can become very cold, we advise that all clients should bring: Some warm clothes, warm jumper, jacket, winter pyjama & scarf.

In June and September

Is very hot at the desert, we recommend bringing fresh clothes with organic fabrics, sun cream, swimming suit, sunglasses and cap/hat.

TRAVEL WITH KIDS

We usually get this question very often: Should we take the kids to the desert?

First of all, we want to make clear that either you are coming from Fez or from Marrakech, it will be a long journey (10 hours road trip). If you start from Marrakech, the route goes across the High Atlas Mountains, stops in Ait Ben Haddou, Ouarzazate, the Todra Gorges, and Dades Valley before reaching Merzouga. We recommend taking the tour that stops in Dades so you have a waypoint to sleep between the road.

If your kids are not used to spending long periods of time in a car, this is going to be very difficult for them.

If you're considering a Sahara visit, you MUST take this into consideration.

If you're unsure how they will do, never book a shared tour, because you won't be able to stop when you require. It will be better then to book a private tour, that will allow you to stop as frequently as needed and will not put others on edge. Note that none of the cars will have a secure seat system for your kids.

After the note about the length of time spent in the car, next point is about activities. Essentially, you're driving 10+ hours to see this amazing experience in one of the most remote places of the world. But from a kid's point of view, consider that electronic gadgets won't work.

If your kids aren't the type to spend hours without being entertained, then plan accordingly. This can be ### an amazing experience, or a frustrating one!

Usually the arrival time in Kam Kam Dunes is at sunset, then while having dinner we usually have "tajine" and chicken or meat. Take into consideration that kids may not be used to Moroccan food and if they don't like it much, there are very limited options on site. We advise to bring some food with you. Baby highchair is not available.

Remember that weather at the desert is very severe, from a sand storm, to very high temperatures during the day and very cold during the night. The kid's buggy will not slide in the sand.

Regarding emergencies, you also must consider that Kam Kam Dunes is located in the desert and the nearest basic "hospital" is in Errachidia (3.5 hours), so you must bring medicines you think you could require.

We have a cat and a dog, and we are surrounded by sand, so if you have any allergy you need to be ready for this.

To sum up, if you take the trip as a family adventure and you think that spending some time on the road won't be an issue, plus you and your kids accept all the inconveniences that may occur, handling it in a good way, then you are welcomed to book a tour! From past experiences, even though 9 months babies visited us, we recommend at least kids to be 4 or 5 years old.

ABOUT KAM KAM DUNES

What food is available?

Our head chef prepares a set breakfast and dinner menu. Please check your reservation to ensure if your rate includes dinner or not. Kindly note that there are no restaurants or bars nearby so there is no other meal options around.

Please note that because you are in an adventure trip we cannot fulfil any dietary preferences i.e. allergies, vegetarian or vegan etc. please inform us in advance of your arrival. Lunch is not served in the camp.

Can we charge our smart phone, tablet or camera?

Usually yes! Sockets are available in the lounge and restaurant areas but not in your tent.

Can Kam Kam Dunes organise transfers from Marrakech or any other city to the desert?

Yes! Let us know your desired itinerary and we can quote you a private driver with 4WD car.

We also can organise itineraries and book riads/hotels with whom we collaborate.

What else is provided for our stay?

All tents have their own bathroom with shower and toilets. Towels, linen, shampoo, toiletries and toilet paper are provided. Please note that drinks, tips and travel insurance are not included.

Is Kam Kam Dunes closed in summer?

Kam Kam Dunes closes in July and August because of the extreme sun, around 50 degrees Celcius and risk of sun stroke in the middle of the dunes.

We are opened from September the 6th until June the 30th!!! We don't recommend heading inside the desert in summer. Most of the luxury camps are closed because we cannot guarantee a comfortable and safe stay, especially with kids or old people. In June, we recommend only stepping into the the desert once the sun is going down.

How can we pay for our stay?

Onsite there is no signal in the middle of the desert! So we only accept cash either in Moroccan Dirhams or Euros.

In advance, you can pay by Paypal, Alipay, Credit or Debit card or bank transfer via a secure system based in Spain.

Beds and Room Configuration

Because many people come with friends all the rooms can be double or triple with separated beds.

If you want a double bed we put two beds together but expect a minimal separation between them. Our tents have 24m<sup>2</sup> and the suites 50m<sup>2</sup>.

What are the check-in and check-out times?

Guests can check-in between 3pm and 9pm. Check-out time is around 10 o'clock but we are very flexible if we have availability! Please inform us in advance if you require a late check-out or any other preferences.

Note that travellers might be teamed up with other groups during transfer, plus you may have to wait to be transferred in a specific time. Check in/out times may be modified for this reason.

Can we arrive early?

You will not be able to be transferred into the desert because the temperature is very high from 16:00 to 18:00 depending on the season, check-in starts when the sun goes down. We strongly recommend checking-in during sunset.

If you arrive early, we can organise the tour in the dunes with lunch for 60€ per person. That includes a private driver and lunch in a Kasbah with a nice swimming pool. We NEVER serve LUNCH in the camp.

Animals & allergies

In Kam Kam Dunes we have a dog and a cat as part of our welcome team :)

If you have any animal allergy, please keep that in mind and bring the medicines accordingly.

If you have dust allergy also keep in mind that you will be surrounded by dust and sand so maybe Kam Kam Dunes is not the best place to stay.

If you have food allergies also is not possible to guarantee a different menu from the set menu of the day. Animals are welcomed at Kam Kam Dunes. Expect also wild animals around since the camp is in the middle of the desert.

If you have any allergy to food or animals you can come only at your own risk.

What does "a private tent" mean?

A private tent means that you will have your own tent in the camp. Each tent has a shower and a toilet inside only for you. Kam Kam Dunes has only 12 tents, so we ensure that never gets crowded with many people.

If you want to privatise the camp only for you, kindly contact us at and we will send you a quote.

Can we bring a hairdryer?

The use of a hairdryer is not permitted in Kam Kam Dunes as it uses a high voltage that our solar panels cannot cover.

Is Wi-Fi available in the desert?

No, but sometimes and depending on the wind and many factors, you might be able to get 3G signal of ORANGE. So if you have an ORANGE sim card with 3G you may get internet. Forfeits are not expensive, around 5/10€ for 2GB. You will be required to show and photocopy the passport to obtain a Sim Card.

ABOUT MOROCCO

Language

The official language is Classical Arabic but Morocco has a distinctive Arabic dialect called Derja that is widely spoken throughout the country, while most of the words find their root in Standard Arabic, some words are borrowed from Spanish, French and Berber. French, Spanish and English are spoken in many cities and popular towns with tourists. You can usually find someone who understands enough of your own language to get the information you need.

Moroccans are very friendly and hospitable, so try saying "salamu 'aleykum" (peace be upon you) and "insh'allah" (God willing).

People and culture

Moroccans are known for their warmth, humour, openness and sociability. Your experience will be shaped by the great tradition of hospitality during your encounters with ordinary Moroccans, in cosmopolitan cities and remote villages alike.

If you are invited to eat with a family, you will typically sit on the floor and eat from a communal plate, placed in the middle of a small table. Eat with your right hand. Utensils are not used although, as a visitor, you are likely to be offered a fork or spoon. If you are invited to a home you should try to take a small gift such as fruit, nuts or sweet pastries.

Although Morocco is considered more relaxed than many other Muslim countries, you still need to be respectful of the culture and traditions of the local people.

Food

Moroccan cuisine is delicious and offers you traditional dishes such as harira (tasty and nourishing bean soup traditionally served for breakfast), tagine (succulent meat cooked with spices and vegetables in a conical shaped pot), meshoui (whole roasted sheep/goat), tangia, a Marrakech specialty, couscous, fresh salads and fruits, hot steaming bread and other delicacies.

Café au lait, or café "nounsous" with pastries is a popular pastime in the street side cafes and mint tea awaits you wherever you go.

Dress

In the cities of Marrakech, Fez, Agadir, Casablanca etc., Moroccan men and women often dress as they would on the streets of European countries.

Water

We do not recommend that you drink tap water anywhere in Morocco. Excellent bottled mineral water is available everywhere.

Alcohol

Although we are talking about an Islamic country, alcohol is available, but respect has to be shown by not overdoing it or making a big show.

In the big cities, there are plenty of bars and all modern hotels sell alcohol. Outside of the cities, apart from tourist hotels, alcohol is almost impossible to locate so stock up at the office before you set off. Drugs are totally illegal in Morocco with prison sentences for many years.

Shopping

Shopping in Morocco can be a challenge rather than a casual pass-time.

A visit to the souk (a market consisting of hundreds of tiny shops), will involve sharing a glass of mint tea with the merchants while you examine variety and quality of the craftsmanship, and haggle for a bargain. All this takes time. Enjoy, it can be a lot of fun. Moroccans are very skilled salesmen if you do not want to buy something from every shop that you enter you must learn to say no. If you do not want to buy anything and are approached by a salesman just smile and say "non merci" and walk on.

Guides & drivers

Regulations govern guides, drivers and vehicles licensed to work with tourists in Morocco. Each driver and vehicle has to be registered and carry the associated permits. Police checkpoints regularly stop and check for the correct paperwork. Guides are licensed according to district and activity: ie: mountain guides, Marrakech city guides, etc.

You will be approached by a self-proclaimed guides commonly known as false guides. Most false guides are just trying to make a small tip and mean you no harm but they can be relentless and persistent in their offer to guide you.

False guides are practiced and skilful and you will need to be firm in your insistence that you do not want a guide. If the harassment continues, do make an obvious attempt to seek out a policeman. You can ask at a nearby shop where you can find the police strict controls have been brought in where being hassled is illegal and the tourist police are constantly on patrol to ensure this is adhered to.

We do highly recommend that you consider hiring a licensed guide for tours in Fez and Marrakech. Not only will you not get continually lost, the authorised guides have considerable knowledge of the history and architecture and will ensure you get to experience the many different areas of the medina. The guide will get a commission on anything that you buy. You can make it clear to the guide at the start of the tour what, if any, shopping you are interested in.

Tipping

Most services are performed with the aim of getting a few dirhams, but aggressive hustling shouldn't be rewarded. Generally a tip of 10 to 20 dirham is suitable for porters, direction givers and photo posers. Restaurants, bars, clubs and coffee shop staff expect tips from tourists and Moroccans. Assuming satisfactory service, this is usually 25 Moroccan dirhams for small checks, and around 10% for larger checks. Most hospitality staff rely heavily on tips for their income.

A tip of 10 to 20% is usual practice for drivers and guides.

Currency

Moroccan Dirham (MAD o dh): 100 Dirhams are around 9.25 euros. South of Morocco can hardly be paid by credit card. It is advisable to bring dirhams in cash. Euros can be exchanged for dirhams at banks or exchange sites and airports. They can also be easily withdrawn at ATMs. Many Moroccans accept euros but then the change is 10 dirhams 1 euro. Most people expect tips, it is advisable to carry small coins for these occasions.

Mobile phones

We recommend buying a sim card of Orange is the only that has a bit of 3G signal in the desert.

Ramadan

Ramadan is the 9th and most important month in the Islamic Calendar. During this time Muslims abstain from eating, drinking or smoking until after sundown on each day. As a traveller, of course you don't need to follow the tradition, but some Muslims appreciate that you don't take meals or smoke in public places. Many restaurants and cafes won't open until after sundown and public transport may be less frequent, shops close earlier before sunset and the pace of life is generally slower.

Begginig

You will see people begging on the streets and you should consider giving your loose change. Persistent begging is not encouraged, and once you have refused, if the requests continue, it is OK to ignore them and move on.

Passport

To avoid any problem when arriving in Morocco, check that your passport has an expiry date after the date of travel, at least 3 months. A paper must be filled at the entrance and exit of the Country. It is important that the PROFESSION box matches in the arrival and departure. No visa required to enter Morocco for Spanish citizens.

Plane

Important for travellers in airplane: always go to the check-in desk to stamp your boarding pass printed at home. The boarding pass must be stamped by the airline before going to the safety control.

Electricity

Electricity is like Spain, France or Italy, 220 v, sockets

Hygiene rules

- Never drink non-bottled water, even for brushing teeth.
- Avoid ice, even if you tell it comes from filtered water.
- Be very careful with the juices as they sometimes add water. Always ask if they have added water.
- Always eat peeled fruit.
- Do not eat lettuce or salad that you suspect may have been washed with running water.
- Do not eat anything raw
- Always carry a Kleenex, or a roll of toilet paper, just in case there isn't paper in public bathrooms.
- Wash your hands often and always before touching your mouth. For this you can use Hand Sanitizer Gel frequently.
- Avoid big meals and raw meat, all well done.

Tips for selfdriving

- If a car comes facing you, they will try to not move aside. We recommend yielding.
- Be careful with cyclists and pedestrians at night, they don't wear lights and it's difficult to identify them on the road.
- Police controls have a stop signal just before the control. You must stop under the signal, not in front of the police. If some driver lights, it might mean that there's a control ahead.
- Seat belt is compulsory for every passenger.
- Avoid accidents, assistance can take a few hours.
- Most rental cars require a high deposit between 1.500€ and 2.000€. If there's an accident, it won't be returned.
- There are many speed cameras in the villages.
